Dear Ms Ohl

As you will be aware ISO 9001:2015 was published on 15 September 2015, and ISO 9001:2008 ceases to be recognized on 14 September 2018. Since your AS9100C certificate references ISO 9001:2008, we cannot show an expiry date past this date therefore we are required to re-issue your certificate.

Your new certificate is enclosed and your entry on the OASIS database has been updated.

Your original expiry date of 26 October 2018 will be restored following your successful transition to AS9100 Revision D following its release later this year.

Electronic versions of the Accreditation Marks and the Rules for their use are available by visiting www.isoqarinc.com and selecting the Customer Login tab.

As an ISOQAR Quality Assured Organization, you will be entitled to apply the Accreditation Marks to letter-headings and publicity material relating to your registration. Due to recent misrepresentations regarding companies' certification please would you ensure that all publicity states that your own company's certificate number is displayed. This enables traceability.

Should you have any queries regarding this or the use of the Accreditation Marks, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

Andrew Smith
